

1st Annual Boys Leadership Summit
Saturday - October 9, 2010
9:00 am to 2:00 pm
Brainerd High School
1020 North Moore Road
Chattanooga, TN 37411

Summary of Program Offerings
(Refer to schedule for time and locations)

Challenge to Serve by Pastor Terna Jordan

The Gang Thang by the Harriet Tubman Express

The Impact of Drug Abuse: Tennessee National Guard Counter-drug Task Force partners with community leadership to help raise the awareness of how drugs, tobacco and alcohol affects our society. As a Drug Demand Reduction Non-Commissioned Officer, I am responsible for the education, awareness and public relation entity which I will be presenting how tobacco, alcohol and prescription drugs affect the growth of youth's mind as well as their bodies. I will also discuss the ramification of using various other illegal drugs such as marijuana and methamphetamines.

Presenter: Sgt. Tremayne Wade
Tennessee National Guard Counterdrug Taskforce.

The Impact of Fatherlessness: More than ever before, the Black community needs strong male leadership. Parenting is more difficult without the active involvement of dads. This session will discuss the roles of 21st century fathers and the impact of fatherlessness upon our families. We will trace the patterns and seek to redraw the lines for healthy father involvement for powerful 21st century Black families.

Presenter: Dr. Rozario Slack—CEO of Rozario Slack Enterprises

“Everybody Can Learn”: This presentation will focus on mastery of foundation concepts (reading & math); linear learning, continuous learning and application of what you learn. It also will address the impact of positive feedback.

Presenter: Mr. James M. Boykin, II—Boykin Learning Center

The Mystery of Hip-Hop: The Mystery of Hip-Hop is a multimedia awareness presentation designed to educate parents, students and the community on issues promoted by the Hip-Hop Culture such as violence, misogyny, drug and alcohol abuse, risky sexual activity and subliminal and anti-Christ messages. This presentation helps equip individuals and organizations to counter Hip-Hop Culture by developing creative media curricula to help youth understand the media messages and risky behaviors the Hip-Hop culture promotes.

Presenter: Mr. Patrick D. Hampton, Student Assistance Coordinator STARS Safe and Drug Free Schools & Communities

The Risks of STD's: This workshop will teach about the different types of STDs that are prevalent today. The discussion will be around the symptoms or signs of each STD and treatment. The effectiveness and ineffectiveness of condoms will also be discussed. During this session, young men will understand the dangers of having sex outside of a faithful marital relationship.

Presenter: Mr. Walter Lindsay—Lead Teacher, On Point

Coping with Bullying: From early childhood we are taught to follow the “Golden Rule” and to be considerate of others. However, an ever increasing number of youth—from elementary to high school—are victims of various types and degrees of bullying, and it has even extended to the internet. These youth often feel powerless, hopeless, scared, angry and depressed; some so traumatized that they resort to suicide. This session will help participants to recognize typical signs of bullying, learn coping strategies, and to encourage them to seek help if needed.

Presenter: Mr. Bo Walker, LCSW—Chief Operating Officer, Partnership for Families, Children and Adults, Inc.

The Impact of Porn: This workshop will look at how women and girls are perceived in our society? It will explore the male brain and how men look the opposite sex when it comes to sexuality.

Presenter: Mr. Willie Richardson—Teacher, On Point

Preparing for College: This session will outline some of the critical things to know about selecting a college or university to attend. We will talk about helpful admission application tips, how to PAY for your college education, and things to do to make certain that you are picking the best place to attend.

Presenters: Mr. Yancey Freeman—Assistant Vice Chancellor for Enrollment Services, UTC and Ms. Rebecca Smith—Director of Scholarships, The Community Foundation of Greater Chattanooga, Inc.

Risky Sexual Behavior: This session will focus on helping the participants to develop an informed awareness of the potential deadly consequences of risky sexual behavior and the benefits of making healthy choices. They will be provided strategies to cope with negative peer pressure and to be assertive in their decisions.

Presenter: Mr. David Sabir—Health Program Supervisor, Harriet Tubman Express Program, Chattanooga-Hamilton County Health Department

Family Fit Together: The alarming trend towards childhood obesity is growing. Tennessee ranks 5th in the nation for overweight youth. The National Center for Health Statistics estimates 1 in 5 children in the United States are overweight. As adults, we know the added burden to our physical and mental health being overweight brings. Let's reverse and prevent that trend for our children! We can do it. Together! Get Fit! This session is dedicated to fighting childhood obesity through family-based fitness and nutrition education.

Presenter: Mr. Tobe Taylor, Family Fit Together, Inc.

Scholarship Opportunities: This session is primarily targeting juniors and seniors (and parents) who are interested in learning about national, state and local scholarship opportunities as well as the financial aid process. This session will also provide participants with tips on what they should be doing right now (as far as scholarships and college applications are concerned) and what needs to happen next semester.

Presenter: Ms. Rebecca Smith—Director of Scholarships, The Community Foundation of Greater Chattanooga, Inc.

Inspirational Keynote Plenary

Mr. Uchendi “Chin” Nwani, author of the best seller “The Millionaire Ex-convict” is polished, confident and credentialed with prestigious experience, a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Tennessee State University, and business lessons he learned from white collar Wall Street ex-convicts while he was in federal prison. It was his no nonsense attitude and ability to hustle in a positive way and his faith in God made him stand out over 6.9 million other ex-convicts and it is his never give up attitude that made him achieve his dreams. His business savvy, passion for excellence and the lessons he has learned on the streets, in federal prison and college have given him the ability to inspire others to explore, embrace, and execute the key to success

Mr. Nwani's book has inspired men and women across the nation to change their lives. Mr. Nwani is the CEO of International Barber & Style College (training college for future barbers & stylists) and Nwani's Barber & Style Salon (employer of licensed barbers & stylists).